

Provided further that a railway servant authorized in this behalf may permit change of name of a passenger having reserved a seat or Berth subject to such circumstances as may be prescribed.

Comment

Section 53 prohibits the transfer issued in the name of a person

54. Exhibition and surrender of passes and tickets.- Every passenger shall, on demand by any railway servant authorized in this behalf, present his pass or ticket to such railway servant authorized in this behalf, present his pass or tickets to such railway servant for examination during the journey or at the end of the journey and surrender such ticket-

(a) at the end of the journey

(b) if such ticket is issued for a specified period, on the expiration of such period.

Comment

Section 54 provides for exhibition of pass and ticket during the journey or at the end of journey and surrender thereof.

55. Exhibition against traveling without pass or ticket.- (1) No person shall enter or remain in any carriage on a railway for the purpose traveling therein as passenger unless he has with him a proper pass or ticket or obtained permission of a railway servant authorized in this behalf for such travel.

(2) A person obtaining permission under sub-section (1) shall ordinarily get a certificate from the railway servant referred to in that sub-section that he has been permitted to travel in such carriage on condition that he subsequently pays the fare payable for the distance to be traveled.

Comment

Section 55 prohibits the entry and traveling in any carriage without proper pass or ticket.

56. Power to refuse to carry persons suffering from infectious or contagious diseases.-

(1) A person suffering from such infections or contagious diseases, as may be prescribed, shall not enter or remain in any carriage on a railway or travel in a train without the permission of a railway servant authorized in this behalf.

(2) The railway servant giving permission under sub-section (1) shall arrange for the separation of the person suffering from such disease from other persons in the train and such person shall be carried in the train subject to such other conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) Any person who enters or remains in any carriage or travels in a train without permission as required under sub-section (1) or in contravention of any condition prescribed under sub-section (2) such person and a person accompanying him shall be liable to the forfeiture of their passes or tickets and removal from railway by any railway servant.

Comment

Section 56 provides for the manner in which the person suffering from infectious or contagious disease may enter or travel in a carriage.

57. Maximum number of passenger for each compartment.- Subject to the approval of the Central Government, every railway administration shall fix the maximum number of passengers which may be carried in each compartment of every description of carriage, and shall exhibit the number so fixed in a conspicuous manner inside or outside each compartment in Hindi, English and also in one or more of the regional languages commonly in use in the areas served by the railway.

Comment

Section 57 empowers a railway administration to fix the maximum number of passengers which may be carried in each compartment.

58. Earmarking of compartment, etc. for ladies. – Every railway administration shall, in every train carrying passengers, earmark for the exclusive use of females, one compartment or such number of berths or seats as the railway administration may think fit.

Comment

Section 58 empowers a railway administration to earmark compartments, berths or seats in every train for exclusive use of females.

59. Communications between passengers and railway servant in charge of train. – A railway administration shall provide and maintain in every train carrying passengers, such efficient means of communication between the passengers and the railway servant in charge of the train as may be approved by the Central Government.